

RESULTS

WHAT TYPE OF ORGANIZER ARE YOU?

Mostly A's: The Systematic Organizer

- Description: You love systems and categories. Efficiency is your goal, and everything has its place.
- Tips: Explore advanced labeling systems and consider investing in custom storage solutions to maximize space.

Mostly B's: The Flexible Organizer

- Description: You prefer a more flexible approach to organizing, doing it as needed without strict rules.
- Tips: Focus on easy-to-maintain solutions like open bins and baskets that allow for quick clean-ups.

Mostly C's: The Aesthetic Organizer

- Description: For you, organization is an extension of home decor. It's not just about being tidy; it's about looking good while doing it.
- Tips: Incorporate organizing products that match your home's style and consider using shelves and glass jars for an appealing display.

Mostly D's: The Minimalist Organizer

- Description: You keep what you love or need, avoiding excess. Your approach is practical and straightforward.
- Tips: Regularly assess what you own, focusing on quality over quantity. Multi-functional furniture can be a game-changer for you.